FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BUTT-HOLDSWORTH MEMORIAL LIBRARY PROVIDES ACCESS TO NETLIBRARY EBOOKS AND OTHER ELECTRONIC RESOURCES TO CITIZENS WITH LIBRARY CARDS

Kerrville – City of Kerrville officials announced this week the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library has access to 28,281 full-text electronic books through NetLibrary. These eBooks are on a variety of subjects; have substantial annotations; and are searchable by author, title, and keyword. Titles are available in English, Spanish, French, German, Chinese, Japanese, and other languages.

NetLibrary is just one part of the many electronic resources available through the Texas State Library's TexShare Databases. Customers using computers inside the library may access these resources without needing a user name and password. Customers with current valid library cards can come to the Library Reference Desk to get a user name and password to enable them to access NetLibrary and the other TexShare Databases electronic resources from their home computers.

For more information on how to get a library card, please contact the Circulation Department staff in person or phone 830-257-8422. Once you get your library card, come to the Reference Desk and the Reference Librarian will be happy to show you how access NetLibrary and the other TexShare Databases from outside the library.

For more information about NetLibrary and other TexShare Databases, please visit the Library Reference Desk in person or call 830-257-8422. For additional information about the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library's resources and services available to you, please visit the library's website at www.bhmlibrary.org.
